The freedom to learn

“A remarkable and inspiring film! What you see in this film is real learning.”
Nancy Carlsson-Paige, founder, Defending The Early Years

Monday September 15 at 1pm WXEL Channel 42 presents a new film by Tom and Amy Valens

Their film, August to June, followed an unconventional rural California public school. Now they take viewers to Boston for a look at how an urban public school creates a climate where children and adults thrive.
